
CYBRARY

Footprinting using passive tools - Whois

Description: Passive Reconnaissance techniques using whois

Requirements: Internet connectivity is all that is required to run this lab

Running from Linux or Windows with Whois utility installed

Step 1: In Linux Run “Terminal” or command prompt in Windows (with whois utility installed)

Step 2: Type whois <domain name>

Step 3: Information about the target domain should be provided

Running from any operating system with internet browser

Step 1: Open your browser and go to whois.net

Step 2: Type the domain in the textbox and hit enter.

Step 3: Information about the target domain should be provided

Question 1: Whois will run on Windows Command prompt without any additional requirements?

Question 2: I need to use Linux in order to get a domain whois details

Question 3: Run Whois on cybrary.it and get the following information

- Admin Name
- Technical Contact
- Domain creation date

Brought to you by:

CYBRARY | FOR BUSINESS

Develop your team with the fastest growing catalog in the cybersecurity industry. Enterprise-grade workforce development management, advanced training features and detailed skill gap and competency analytics.

CYBRARY

Brought to you by:

CYBRARY | FOR BUSINESS

Develop your team with the fastest growing catalog in the cybersecurity industry. Enterprise-grade workforce development management, advanced training features and detailed skill gap and competency analytics.