

You completed Recon: Quiz
Your score

100%

You answered 5 out of 5 questions correctly

1. A Red Team Operator is the primary project communicator and responsible for the mission as a whole. ✓

The Red Team Leader is the primary communicator and is ultimately responsible for the mission as a whole.

2. Night vision goggles are not only useful for navigating at night, but can be used to spot passive infrared (PIR) cameras/sensors. ✓

NVGs are great for navigating at night but also ideal for locating passive infrared motion sensors and cameras.

3. Rally Points are physical locations where the team will exfil toward once the operation has been completed. ✓

The Rally Point is where red team operators will make their way toward once the operation is done. Deployment points are where the operators disembark from and make their way toward the target.

4. Recon is only partially about observation. Most of the work is performed trying to figure out the mission objectives. ✓

Observing, taking photos, taking video footage is mostly what about the Recon phase is all about. Mission objectives are defined elsewhere in the REDTEAMOPSEC process.

5. Company websites, Facebook, Instagram, Google Earth, Google Images are all great ways to capture long-range intelligence about a target. ✓

Company websites, LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Google Earth, Google Images, Maltego are all great places and tools to gather important intel about a target.